MY SUMMER VACATION

It was the first day of summer vacation, and Lily was excited not to wake up early for school. She smiled at the sunny sky outside her window. Her family was going to the beach. She packed her swimsuit, a hat, and her favorite book. In the car, Lily and her brother, Max, played games and sang songs, making the road trip fun.

When they arrived, Lily ran to the ocean. The water was warm, and the sand tickled her feet. She and Max built a big sandcastle with towers and a moat, decorating it with shells. Afterward, Mom gave them ice cream—Lily had chocolate, and Max chose strawberry. They sat under an umbrella, enjoying their treats. In the afternoon, they walked on the pier, watching boats and dolphins jumping in the water while Lily took pictures. As the sun set, the sky turned pink and orange. It was beautiful. Lily felt happy and tired; it was a perfect start to summer vacation, and she couldn't wait for more adventures.
