GRAMMAR TEST

Countable and Uncountable Nouns + Quantifiers

Compounds of some / any / no / every

---

1. Complete the sentences. Use each word once.

anything • everyone • nobody • nowhere • something • somewhere

1. There is _____ wrong with my laptop. It won't turn on.

2. I asked all twenty students about the trip. _____ wanted to come.

3. The bus was completely full. There was _____ to sit.

4. "Who is in the classroom?" "_____. All the students have gone home."

5. I know my charger is _____ in this room, but I can't find it.

6. "Did you buy any clothes?" "No, I didn't buy _____."

2. Correct one mistake in each sentence.

Write the complete sentence. Keep the original meaning.

1. Everyone are ready for the lesson.

_____

2. I didn't tell nobody about your surprise party.

_____

3. There is interesting something in this email.

_____

4. Somebody have left a phone on the desk.

_____

5. We couldn't find our tickets nowhere.

_____

6. Everything in this shop look expensive.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. This furniture is / furnitures are very old.

2. There isn't much light / lights in this room.

3. Please turn off all the light / lights before you leave.

4. We haven't got much time / times to finish the project.

5. She has long brown hair / hairs.

6. There are two hair / hairs on your jacket.

4. Complete the sentences. Use each word once.

The hints in brackets explain the meaning.

much • many • a few • few • a little • little

1. How _____ students are taking the test today?

2. How _____ time do we have before the lesson starts?

3. We have _____ eggs left - enough to make an omelette.
(some, but not many)

4. There is _____ milk in the fridge - enough for your coffee.
(some, but not much)

5. He has very _____ friends in his new town and often feels lonely.
(almost none)

6. There is very _____ water in the bottle. We need to buy more.
(almost none)

LIVEWORKSHEETS