3 Read and circle the perfect job for each person.

Choosing what to do when you're older isn't easy. You need to think about what you like, what you don't like and what the job involves. What's the perfect job for these people?

1 Patricia

I love children, but I'm not very good at explaining things. I make my own clothes, like T-shirts and skirts. People like them, but they don't think the same about my cooking. I'm lucky my sister is a very good cook!

fashion designer / teacher / chef

2 Ian

My mother reads the news on TV. She talks to important politicians. Everybody talks to her in the street like she's a film star. I'm quite shy, but I love the theatre and I take part in plays at school.

politician / TV presenter / actor

3 Elliot

At school I was very good at maths and my university degree is in science. My dad says 'Why don't you become a scientist?' But my passion is my guitar. I like teaching people how to play it.

musician / teacher / scientist

4 Margaret

When I was little my favourite food was chicken with potatoes, but today I don't eat meat. I'm a vegetarian and member of an animal protection group. I love being in the countryside and riding horses.

chef / doctor / farmer

5 Simon

I love TVs, but I don't like watching them. I like taking all the pieces out and putting them back together. When I was little, I wasn't interested in toys from shops. I also make small cars and robots that move.

journalist / inventor / actor
