A DIFFERENT EXPERIENCE

Last summer, Daniel decided to travel to another country to improve his English. He had studied the language for five years, but he had never spoken with native speakers before.

During his trip, he stayed with a local family and attended an English course every morning. At first, he felt nervous because he couldn't understand everything people said. However, after a few weeks, he became more confident and started making new friends.

Daniel also visited museums, tried traditional food and explored different cities. He believes that travelling is one of the best ways to learn about other cultures and improve communication skills.

Answer the questions:

1. Why did Daniel decide to travel abroad?

2. How long had he studied English?

3. How did he feel at the beginning of his trip?

4. What activities did he do during his trip?

5. What does Daniel believe about travelling?
