ADVERBS OF TIME

Choose the option

A Weekend to Remember

Last month, Daniel decided to visit his grandparents in the countryside. He hadn't seen them (1) _____, so he was very excited about the trip.

1.
A. yesterday
B. for a long time
C. tomorrow

Daniel usually visited them at weekends, but (2) _____ he had been too busy with school activities.

2.
A. recently
B. next year
C. every morning

He packed his suitcase on Friday evening because he was leaving (3) _____.

3.
A. last week
B. the following morning
C. two years ago

When he arrived, his grandmother was preparing lunch. His grandfather had (4) _____ bought a new bicycle for him.

4.
A. just
B. tomorrow
C. next month

Daniel was delighted because he had wanted a bicycle (5) _____.

5.
A. since next week
B. for several months
C. yesterday morning

They spent the afternoon riding bicycles and exploring the countryside. (6) _____, they decided to have a picnic near the river.

6.
A. Later
B. Next year
C. Every day

Daniel took some beautiful photographs. He wanted to show them to his friends (7) _____.

7.
A. last night

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. tomorrow
C. two days ago

On Sunday morning, his grandparents prepared a delicious breakfast. Daniel had to return home (8) _____ because he had school on Monday.

8.
A. the following afternoon
B. last summer
C. every weekend

Before leaving, he promised to visit them again (9) _____.

9.
A. next month
B. yesterday
C. last night

Daniel arrived home tired but happy. He knew he would remember that wonderful weekend (10) _____.

10.
A. yesterday
B. for a long time
C. last Monday

Write one complete sentence using each adverb of time. At least 15 words

1. Currently _____
2. Recently _____
3. Tomorrow _____
4. For a long time _____
5. Eventually _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS