Read the two cybercrime stories. Complete the gaps with the correct form of the verbs in brackets. Use the past simple, past progressive or past perfect.

Story 1 – The Fake Online Shop

Last Saturday, Emma _____ (look) for new trainers online when she suddenly _____ (discover) a website with amazing offers.

The trainers were very cheap because the shop _____ (reduce) all its prices by 70%.

Emma _____ (never / hear) of the shop before, but the website looked professional.

While she _____ (compare) different trainers, a message _____ (appear) on her screen: "Only two pairs left!"

Emma _____ (decide) to buy the trainers immediately.

After she _____ (enter) her credit card details, she _____ (receive) a confirmation email.

However, when she _____ (check) her bank account the next morning, she _____ (notice) something strange.

Someone _____ (already / take) €300 from her account!

Emma immediately _____ (call) her bank and _____ (report) the fraud.

Later, the police _____ (discover) that several other customers _____ (lose) money on the same fake website.

Story 2 – The Dangerous Email

One afternoon, when Ben _____ (do) his homework, he _____ (receive) an email from someone who claimed to be his school principal.

The message said that someone _____ (hack) the school's computer system and that all students needed to change their passwords.

Ben _____ (never / get) such an email before, so he _____(feel) worried.

While he _____ (read) the message, his best friend Tom _____ (send) him a text.

Tom _____(warn) him that several students_____ (already / receive) the same suspicious email.

Unfortunately, Ben _____ (click) on the link before he _____ (read) Tom's warning.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Suddenly, his computer _____ (start) behaving strangely.

When Ben _____ (try) to close the website, a strange message _____ (appear) on the screen.

He immediately _____ (turn off) his computer and _____ (tell) his parents what _____(happen)

His father _____ (contact) an IT expert, who later _____ (find) out that Ben _____ (download) malware by clicking on the link.

After the expert _____(remove) the program, Ben_____ (can) use his computer again.

LIVEWORKSHEETS