Question # 4 (1.5 points)
Read the title of the magazine article and look at the picture. What kind of person is a ¨couch potato¨? Circle the correct answer.

Where are all the couch potatoes?

By Ann Taylor

1 Parents and teachers say that teenagers are "couch potatoes" and spend all their time in front of silly TV shows. But is it true that young people really watch a lot of TV?

2 The results of a recent survey show that people in the UK typically watch twenty-seven and a half hours of TV every week – almost four hours a day! But there is some surprising news – young people don't watch as much TV as adults do. For example, middle-aged adults (aged forty-five to fifty-five) watch about five hours a day. But young people aged twelve to seventeen watch about two and a half hours a day. And an older person watches about six hours a day!

3 Studies in countries such as the USA and Australia suggest the same: kids today spend less time in front of the TV than young people in the 1980s.

4 Teenagers today don't often sit with their families on the living room couch. So where are they? Do they spend all their free time outdoors, away from the TV? The simple answer is no, they don't. They're still watching series and movies – around thirty-one hours a week! So, what's different now? Well, now they're online! Watching series and movies on streaming apps installed on cell phones and tablets is now one of the most popular free-time activities for teenagers. The couch potato is alive and well – he's just back in his bedroom.

What kind of person is a ¨couch potato¨? Circle the correct answer.

A. A person who eats potato chips in front of the TV
B. A person who spends a lot of time sitting and watching TV
