ON THEIR WAY TO SCHOOL

The children (0) ___of___ Gulu, which is a small village in China, used to have (1) ___an___ unusual journey to school. Their village (2) ___was___ located in a deep valley surrounded by mountains and it took them five hours to get to their school. The pupils had to climb up a mountain along a path that was (3) ___very___ narrow in places that they were in danger of falling into the valley below.

Their teacher, Shen Qijun, ran this school (4) ___for___ over 26 years. Although his students enjoyed school, only two of (5) ___them___ went to university. Everything changed when a newspaper wrote a report and this journey to school became famous. The local government decided (6) ___to___ close the school because the journey was too dangerous. People sent money and the families could afford to send their children to the town below the mountain to attend school there.

Where do you have breakfast? I have mine at the canteen at school. There are usually loads (0) ..of.. my friends there as well. There is plenty of choice, like cereal, toast or yogurt and we eat as much (1) ..as.. we can.

Now I am older, I help with the breakfast club. There (2) ..are.. some very young children who come at 7.30 in the morning and I look (3) ..after.. two or three six-year-olds to make sure they eat well.

In my opinion, breakfast is the most important meal of the day because it helps my body and brain work better. If I have a good breakfast (4) ..during.. day, I have more energy to study.

I love being (5) ..with.. my friends and chatting in the canteen. After we have eaten, we clean the tables and we go to class, ready (6) ..to.. start the day.
