Part 2

You will hear a man called Alan James talking about his work as a stuntman, performing the extreme action scenes in films, in place of the main actor. For questions 9–18, complete the sentences with a word or short phrase.

Alan James, action scene specialist

Alan suggests that action scenes taking place on (9) ..... have become his speciality.

Alan says that thanks to the approach known as (10) ....., action scenes are as safe as they can be.

Alan says the feelings he has before an action scene are due to (11) ..... .

Alan believes his choice of career was decided when he started riding a

(12) ..... .

Alan says the lack of (13) ..... is a problem for people wishing to work in the industry.

Alan gives the example of (14) ..... as a skill he's reached the top level in.

Alan says the majority of people like him work as (15) ..... to build up enough screen experience for the job.

Alan thinks his most thrilling action scene was flying a (16) ..... in poor weather conditions.

One scene that Alan wasn't keen on involved having a (17) ..... with an actor.

In Alan's opinion, the film called (18) ..... best shows his work.

LIVEWORKSHEETS