(NOT) TO BE ALLOWED TO

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word "ALLOWED" . Do not change the word given. Use between two and five words, including the word given.

Example: They may give us permission to park in the staff car park.

We may be allowed to park in the staff car park.

1. Students must not use their mobile phones during exams.

Students _____ their mobile phones during exams.

2. My parents didn't let me stay out late when I was younger.

I _____ out late when I was younger.

3. Visitors can take photographs inside the museum.

Visitors _____ photographs inside the museum.

4. The school prohibits students from wearing jeans.

Students _____ jeans at school.

5. Will they let us enter the building tomorrow?

Will we _____ the building tomorrow?

6. The teacher has given us permission to use dictionaries during the test.

We _____ dictionaries during the test.

LIVEWORKSHEETS