1. Look at the school advertisements. Match the advertisements to sentences A-H. There are three options you don't need to use.

1

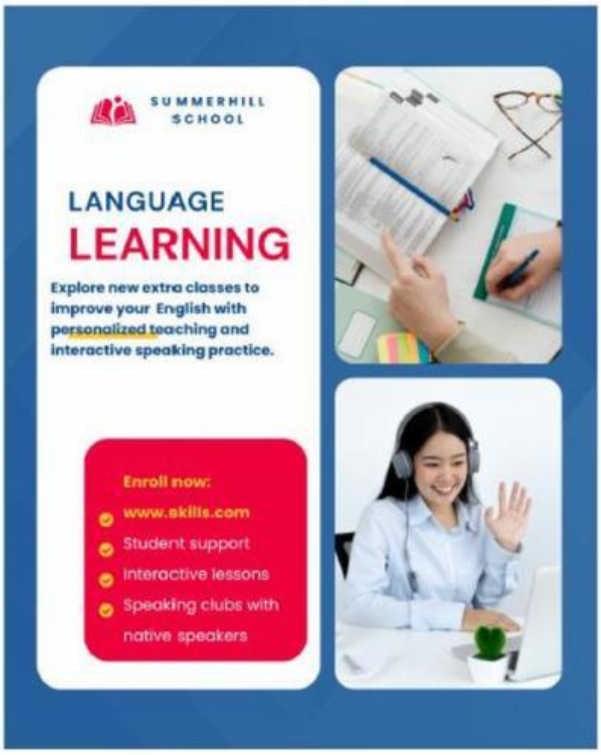

2

3

4

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5

This advertisement offers_____.

A. an event on some handy school tips
B. an individual approach in teaching
C. math test preparation for university
D. academic and emotional support balance
E. a school specialising in teaching one subject
F. the school's curriculum structure to parents
G. extra classes for students from all over the world
H. some very innovative techniques in teaching

1.	2.	3.	4.	5.

2. Read the text and complete the gaps 1-5 with the correct option A-H from the list below. There are two extra options you do not need to use.

Summerhill School

What would you do if your teacher said you 1_____or you could go home? Well, just imagine a school where attendance 2_____ ! In Suffolk, in the United Kingdom, that school exists! Summerhill School was founded in 1921 by a man called A.S. Neill.

Neill was aware of the kinds of problems many children have at school, and he believed 3_____ to give them complete freedom.

Children at Summerhill are under no pressure at all to attend lessons. Most of them do, however. Often, they come from schools where they were unhappy and refused to do any work at all. After a while, though, they settle down and usually decide 4_____ is more interesting.

Another unusual thing about Summerhill is the weekly meeting. All teachers and students decide the school rules democratically, with one vote each. 5_____about a teacher, or if a teacher wants to talk about a student's bad behaviour, they can do so in the meeting. Life at Summerhill is full of all kinds of challenges, but most of the people there agree 6_____.

A. that attending lessons

B. that it's a very special place

C. if a student wants to complain

D. wasn't compulsory at all

E. unless you study hard

F. that the only solution was

G. could either stay to have your lesson

H. so they started skipping lessons

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read the text and choose the correct answer (A, B, C, or D) to fill in the gaps.

Teenage Teachers

People may think teenagers are too young to be in charge of a class when they're still students themselves, but that's not necessarily true. Sixteen-year-olds are 1_____teaching lessons to primary school children in a new government scheme which 2_____ school leavers to work as teaching assistants in primary schools.

New rules were recently introduced which 3_____ all primary school teachers to have more time during the school day for preparing lessons, but this sometimes means that teachers have less time for actual teaching. Now teenagers fill the gap.

They take a two-year course starting when they are 14. When they enter the classroom as teachers 4_____ than students, they have to quickly put into practice the skills they learned while they 5_____. The government believes that around 18,000 teenagers could get jobs in this way. However, many people question whether young teenagers are truly suitable for teaching roles.

1	A. currently	B. newly	C. previously	D. recently
2	A. lets	B. tells	C. allows	D. suggests
3	A. allowing	B. have allowed	C. were allowed	D. had allowed
4	A. rather	B. even	D. instead	D. sooner
5	A. are studying	B. were studying	C. studied	D. had studied

LIVEWORKSHEETS