WORD FORMATION

NEEDS VOCABULARY

COMPLETE THE SENTENCES BY CHANGING THE FORM OF THE WORD IN BRACKETS TO FIT THE CONTEXT OF EACH SENTENCE.

- The university decided to give him an _____ degree to thank him for his donations. (honor)
- The whole family gathered for a _____ celebration to mark their grandparents' golden wedding anniversary. (joy)
- The lead architect presented a _____master plan for the new city library that completely amazed the board. (vision)
- The children stared at the magic show with _____ eyes, completely amazed. (wonder)
- Because he never laughs at jokes and always looks serious, people find him rather_____. (humour)
- Before you buy a used car online, make sure the seller is _____. (trust)
- In biology classes, we study the _____ tissue that joins our bones and muscles. (connection)
- She is an incredibly _____ dancer, moving across the stage with effortless beauty. (grace)
- An _____ teacher can easily understand how a stressed student feels. (empathy)
- The movie was quite _____, given all the massive hype surrounding it. (whelm)

LIVEWORKSHEETS