A lot of people say girls don't read fantasy books and they only read love stories. Well, it's not true! I love fantasy. My favourite books are about a teenage criminal, Artemis Fowl. An Irish author, Eoin Colfer, wrote eight books about him. I've already read them all!
Artemis is from a family of criminals, but he's not a villain. At the beginning, he's not a good person. He doesn't have many friends. He's very clever, but he uses his intelligence for his crimes. Later, he learns many things about life, and becomes a real hero.
They've made a film of Artemis Fowl, but I haven't seen it yet.
