STUDENT LIFE

SARA

I started going to drama school when I was nine. I love it! It's the biggest drama school in the country. My dad drives me there.

The school day begins with drama lessons at 8 o'clock. In the morning, we do dance, music, theatre, or project work. After lunch, we change into our school uniform and have normal school lessons until 4.30 in the afternoon. At the weekend, we sometimes put on shows, or have sports competitions with other schools.

MARIAN

My parents decided to teach me at home when we moved to the countryside because my old school was too far away.

I get up at 8 o'clock, and begin studying an hour later. In the morning, my dad teaches me maths and science. In the afternoon, I do sports or art with my mum. My weekends are free. I like home schooling because I can choose my own projects, and I can wear what I like.

FREDDY

I live at my school during the term! My parents live in Spain and I go home to see them in the holidays. I often miss them.

We wake up early, at 6.45 in the morning, have breakfast at 8 o'clock, and start the first lesson at 8.45. There are six lessons every weekday. We also have two lessons on Saturday morning. There is no uniform, but we have to wear smart clothes. I'm not great at studying – maths is the hardest for me – but I win a lot of prizes for football and tennis.

Part 3: Questions 14 – 18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Young chef

14-year-old Marc Weiner has his own cooking show on TV.

Marc, when did you start cooking?

I started helping my mum in the kitchen when I was six. I made her coffee – it was terrible! I was seven when I made my first meal – a pizza with four different kinds of cheese.

Do you have a favourite recipe?

It's hard because I have so many. The easy ones are fun – things with pasta, tomatoes and onions. My favourites are the ones that include fish. There are so many different things you can do!

What do your parents think of your cooking?

When I won my first competition, my mum and dad understood that I was a real chef. They're glad that they don't have to make dinner every night, and they enjoy my food – usually! But, you can't make everyone happy all the time.

What's the best way to get good at cooking?

First, I threw away some of what I made because it was no good – that's how you learn. Then, I did it differently the next time. You need to practise, so if you know a chef, ask if you can help them in the kitchen sometimes.

Finally, what's it like being on TV?

It's interesting. I'm actually a very quiet person, so I'm amazed that I really enjoy myself making the shows. They're watched by millions, but I still find it strange when people I don't know say hello to me in the street.

Hi Alex,

That's right! I've just moved to a new house in the town centre. It isn't very big, but it's clean and has a nice view of the park. I like the kitchen best because I often cook with my mum there. Please come and visit next weekend so we can play games!

See you,

Nam

7. After school, Alex went back to his house. He put his books on the table and opened the fridge in the kitchen. Then he sat down for doing homework. Suddenly, his friends came out with a birthday cake and a big sign "Happy birthday!". Alex felt very excited on his birthday.
