

My Morning Activities

I study at a local college. I have classes from Monday to Friday. My favourite subjects are English and computer science because I enjoy learning new things.
I usually arrive at college at 7:20 a.m. I meet my friends near the entrance, and we talk for a few minutes before class.

Our English teacher is very friendly. She always starts the lesson with a short conversation. Sometimes we talk about our families, our hobbies, or our weekend activities.
During the lessons, I take notes, read short texts, answer questions, and work with my classmates. I don't always understand everything, but I try to ask questions when I have problems.
At 10:00 a.m., we have a short break. I usually go to the cafeteria with my best friend, Lucas. We buy a sandwich or some fruit and drink water or juice.

Lucas is a very funny person. He always tells jokes, and we often laugh together. Sometimes we talk about football, music, films, and video games.
After the break, we return to our classrooms. I have two more lessons before lunchtime.
At 12:30 p.m., my classes finish. I say goodbye to my friends and take the bus home.
