ENGLISH FOR TOURISM (GRADE 10 / M.4)

Worksheet: Asking for and Giving Directions (Direct & Indirect Questions)

Name: _____ Class: M.4/_____ No.: _____

Part 1: Direct vs. Indirect Questions

Instructions: Rewrite the following direct questions as polite indirect questions using the given introductory phrases.

1. Direct: Where is the tourist information center?
   Indirect: Could you tell me
   _____?
2. Direct: How can I get to Wat Arun from here?
   Indirect: Do you know
   _____?
3. Direct: Which bus goes to the floating market?
   Indirect: Could you let me know
   _____?
4. Direct: Is the museum far from the hotel?
   Indirect: Do you happen to know
   _____?
5. Direct: Where can I buy a SIM card?
   Indirect: Excuse me, could you tell me
   _____?

Part 2: Giving Directions Vocabulary

Instructions: Match the direction expressions (1–5) with their correct definitions (A–E).

No.	Expressions	Answer	Definitions
1.	Go straight ahead	_____	A. Continue walking past a specific place.
2.	Turn left at the intersection	_____	B. Located directly across the street from something.
3.	Walk past the souvenir shop	_____	C. Keep moving forward without turning.
4.	It's on the corner of...	_____	D. Make a left turn where two roads meet.
5.	It's opposite the night market	_____	E. Located at the point where two streets join.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Part 3: Tourism Role-Play Dialogue (10 Points)

Instructions: Complete the conversation between a Tourist and a Hotel Receptionist using the expressions in the box.

turn right	Could you tell me where	opposite	Go straight ahead	on your right

Situation: A foreign tourist at a hotel in Bangkok wants to visit Khaosan Road and asks the receptionist for directions.

Tourist: Excuse me. (1) _____ Khaosan Road is?

Receptionist: Certainly! It's not very far from here. When you walk out of the hotel, (2) _____ onto Rama IV Road.

Tourist: Okay, turn right onto Rama IV Road. And then?

Receptionist: (3) _____ for about 500 meters until you see a big clock tower. Then, turn left.

Tourist: Got it. Is it on the left or on the right?

Receptionist: Walk past the temple, and Khaosan Road will be (4) _____. It's right (5) _____ the police station. You can't miss it!

Tourist: Thank you so much for your help.

Receptionist: You're welcome. Enjoy your trip!

LIVEWORKSHEETS