b It is a very busy place.
c Not much happens there.

2 Why does the writer say it is boring?

c Because he doesn't like doing sport.

3 What does he say about the sports centre?
a He goes there very often.
b You can't do many sports there.
c It costs too much.

4 Why doesn't he like the cinema?

c The picture quality is bad.

5 Where is the shopping centre?

c In the town centre.
