Name :

Class :

Let's Express Our Opinions!

Agreeing and Disagreeing

Read each question carefully and complete all three activities!

Activity 1 - Match the Expressions

Instruction: Draw a line to connect each expression with its correct function

Expression	Function
What do you think about online learning?	Agreeing
In my opinion, English is important.	Asking opinion
I agree with you.	Disagreeing
I see your point, but I have a different opinion.	Giving opinion

Asking and Giving Opinions ?!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Let's Express Our Opinions!
Agreeing and Disagreeing

Activity 2 Complete the Dialogue

Instruction: Complete the dialogue using the expressions in the box!

- I think
- What do you think
- I agree
- I see your point, but
- because

Dialogue:

Rina: Hi, Dika! (1) _____ about students using smartphones at school?

Dika: (2) _____ smartphones can be useful for learning.

Rina: Why do you think so?

Dika: (3) _____ they help students find learning materials easily.

Rina: (4) _____ with you. Smartphones can support learning.

Dika: However, some students may use them to play games during lessons.

Rina: (5) _____ students should use smartphones wisely.

Asking and Giving Opinions

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Let's Express Our Opinions!
Agreeing and Disagreeing

Activity 3 - Build Your Own Argument

Instruction: Choose ONE topic below. Then, complete the sentences to express your opinion with a reason and an example!

Choose one topic:

- Students should bring smartphones to school.
- Students should read English books every day.
- Schools should provide more extracurricular activities.

Complete the following sentences:

My Opinion

I think_____.

My Reason

Because _____.

My Example

For example, _____.

Example of a complete answer:

- Opinion: I think students should read English books every day.
- Reason: Because reading helps students improve their vocabulary.
- Example: For example, students can read English storybooks at home.

Asking and Giving Opinions ?!

LIVEWORKSHEETS