Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

tenant · prose · charismatic · subsidy · tuberculosis · prominent · solidify · pseudonym · disdain · accomplished · inspiration · bankruptcy · suffragette · sympathetic · sanatorium · develop close contact with · distinguished · author

1. The writer was a _____ figure in the literary world, and her books were widely read by people from different backgrounds.
2. The government provided a financial _____ to help the local theatre continue producing performances.
3. Although she was seriously ill with _____, she continued writing throughout much of her life.
4. The novelist published her first book under a _____ because she wanted to keep her real identity secret.
5. The young artist found _____ in the works of famous painters and used their ideas to create something original.
6. The landlord decided to increase the rent for the _____ who had lived in the apartment for several years.
7. The author was an _____ woman who had achieved great success in both literature and social activism.
8. Her _____ personality made her popular with readers, students and fellow writers.
9. The organisation was forced into _____ after it failed to pay its debts.
10. The writer spent several months in a _____, where patients could rest and receive treatment.
11. The politician showed _____ for people who had no interest in improving their education.
12. She was a _____ writer whose works received numerous awards and international recognition.
13. The experience of living abroad helped the writer _____ people from different cultures.
14. The friendship between the two writers helped _____ their relationship and made it stronger over time.
15. A _____ is a woman who campaigned for the right of women to vote.
16. The author's early works were mainly written in _____ rather than poetry.
17. The teacher was _____ towards students who struggled with their studies and always tried to understand their difficulties.

LIVEWORKSHEETS