

PASSIVE VOICE IN UNREAL CONDITIONAL SENTENCES PRACTICE

Change these sentences from active to passive voice.

1. If Bob visited the museum, I would meet him.

2. If I had finished the race, I could have won the first prize.

3. If we had baked cookies, we could have given some to you.

4. If Jack had read the book, he could have passed the test.

5. I could have helped you if you had paid more attention.

6. If Susan liked pizza, she would buy a slice.

7. If Eric asked Joseph, Joseph would help Eric.

8. If Jeff had practiced the violin, he could have given a better performance.

Change these sentences from passive to active voice.

9. If volleyball were played by Bob, he would be chosen by the NBA.

10. If the report had been delivered by Ana, it would have been read by the president.

11. If the art gallery had been opened yesterday by Mary, your painting could have been seen by Lu.

12. If the instructions were listened by Robert, the job could be done right by his group.

13. If the drawing had been painted by Lou, it would have been handed in by Mark.

14. If the clothes were washed by Alice, they would be folded by Hans.

15. If the fruit had been cut by the kids, the fruit salad would have been eaten by the parents.
