

VOCABULARY TEST

Name: Surname:

1. Circle a, or b to complete the sentences.

1. "Would you like a(n) ...?" "Yes, I'll have some lemonade, please."

a. beverage

b. appetising

2. One major use of microwaves is ... food.

a. defrosting

B. nourishing

3. My favourite Italian ... is lasagne.

a. plate

b. dish

4. She offered us some freshly ... cookies.

a. roasted

b. baked

5. Could you ... an orange for me?

a. clean

b. peel

6. The medicine had a slightly bitter

a. flavour

b. taste

7. ... your food first. Don't eat so quickly.

a. Chew

b. Bite

8. The meat was so burnt that it was

a. speciality

b. inedible

9. She can't eat yogurt or drink milk. She's allergic to ... products.

a. dairy

b. spices

10. She rolled out the ... to make a cheese pie.

a. cutlery

b. pastry

2. Complete the sentences using ONE preposition.

1. The doctor advised him to go a diet.

2. Mark, can you please clear the dishes after dinner?

3. How about cooking a vegetarian dish tonight a change?

4. You should really try to cut on all that fattening food.

5. I really enjoy eating and Pizza Hut is my favourite Italian restaurant.

6. Strawberries are cheap if you buy them season.

3. Write the opposites of the adjective below.

1. cooked
2. well done
3. overcooked
4. fresh
5. sweet (fruit)
6. tender
7. tasteless
8. sweet (wine)

4. Write synonyms of the adjectives below.

1. tasty
2. huge
3. hungry
4. sickening
5. tired
6. angry

