APPOSITIVE

1. There is evidence that Betelgeuse, _____, may have doubled in size in the last 2000 years.
   (A) is a star in the constellation Orion
   (B) a star in the constellation Orion
   (C) a star which in the constellation Orion
   (D) a star is in the constellation Orion
2. The trade group, _____, informed George Kurtz that it intended to pursue copyright-infringement charges against Found stone.
   (A) the Software Industry Association
   (B) is the Software Industry Association
   (C) the Software Industry Association is
   (D) which the Software Industry Association
3. One software package, _____ was Teleport Pro, an offline browser program made by Tennyson Maxwell Information Systems.
   (A) available on Found stone's server
   (B) was available on Found stone's server
   (C) which available on Found stone's server
   (D) is available on Found stone's server
4. The Alaskan Highway, _____ between Alaska and the continental U.S, runs more than 1,400 miles along the west coast of north America.
   (A) is the main artery
   (B) that the main artery
   (C) the main artery
   (D) that is the main artery
5. The tetracycline, which (A) a family of antibiotics, is commonly (B) used (C) to treat (D) infections.
6. Biogas, which (A) a mixture of (B) methane and carbon (C) dioxide, is produced (D) by the fermentation of organic matter.
7. Joseph Henry, was (A) the first (B) director of the Smithsonian institution, was President Lincoln's adviser (C) on scientific (D) matters.
8. Norman Winner, whom (A) a great mathematician (B), had an important (C), respectful role in the development (D) of computer.
9. Charles Ives, who (A) the first great American composer of the twentieth (B) century, had to wait many (C) years for the recognition he deserved (D).
10. Kofi Annan, who the secretary general (A) of the United Nations has convened (B) a panel of eminent (C) persons to explore (D) the challenges of sustain able development.

LIVEWORKSHEETS