

Schools in the Past

One [redacted] years ago schools were very different. Children did not wear [redacted]. They used to wear their everyday clothes to school.

Children learned to read, write and do mathematics. They had [redacted] and geography lessons but they did not [redacted] science.

They used to write on slates with [redacted] chalk. When the children finished their work, they cleaned their slates with a rag so that they could write on them again and again.
