PRESENTATION

- 1 002 Listen and read. What is Maddie's blog about?

Welcome to my blog!

My name's Maddie. I'm 17 and ^AI live in Birmingham in the UK. ^BI'm writing this post because I want to tell you more about me and this blog.

What do I do on this blog? Well, I show you the latest ⁵ video games and I give you tips on how to play better! My favourite games are usually fantasy games, but this week ^CI'm testing some new action games too – just for you!

I always reply to your questions and comments, but that sometimes takes a few days. I go to school every ¹⁰ day and I do homework every night – just like you!

^DI usually write on this blog three times a week, but I'm studying hard at the moment because I'm taking some exams next month. Don't worry if everything goes quiet for a while!

¹⁵ What do I do when I'm not playing video games? I love reading fantasy books, and I enjoy playing football too. People are always telling me that these are hobbies for boys! Why do they believe that? It's really annoying!! I also love listening to music, ²⁰ and I have guitar lessons twice a week. Yes, I sometimes go outdoors!!
