1 Read the text and decide which answer (a, b, c or d) best fits each gap.

The real Anchorman

Comedy fans around the world are familiar with Ron Burgundy, the main character in the Anchorman films. The part of Ron Burgundy [1] ___ by comedian Will Ferrell, who also wrote the script. The first Anchorman film takes place in the 1970s, in San Diego, where Ron is the number one [2] ___ at Channel Four nightly news. With him on the programme, are reporters Brian Fantana and Champ Kind, as well as the [3] ___ of the weather report, Brick Tamland. All is well until their boss informs them that he has been forced [4] ___ the network to hire a woman, who will read the news with Ron. [5] ___ told this drives Ron mad because he thinks he's better than a woman. He believes that women shouldn't [6] ___ the same jobs as men. To Ron's surprise, however, the woman is fantastic at her job and better than him! Soon, Ron [7] ___ fired and the woman becomes the only star on the nightly news.

Ferrell told the readers of the New York Times [8] ___ that he got the idea for the film while watching a documentary about one of the first women to read the TV news in the 1970s. It had been difficult for her [9] ___ in an industry dominated by men. Ferrell saw the funny side of the story and a very funny film [10] ___!

1	a plays	b is played c has played	d play
2	a columnist	b blogger
	c newsreader	d editor
3	a presenter	b journalist
	c DJ	d correspondent
4	a by	b from c for	d with
5	a Be	b To be
	c Been	d Being

6	a given	b be given
	c being given	d to be given 7	a get	b does c has	d gets 8	a radio	b television
	c newspaper	d journal
9	a was accepted	b be accepted
	c being accepted	d to be accepted
10	a made	b was made
	c makes	d has made	