

Senses

I can see a _____, glowing through the rain
 I can see the _____ in a speeding train
 I can see quite close up, I can see quite _____
 I can see forever when I see a _____.

I can smell the _____, falling on the grass
 I can smell the paint and paper in my _____ class
 I can smell a _____ smell, also something good
 I can smell my parents _____ lovely food.

I can hear the _____ blow, trying to get in
 I can hear a hungry _____, climbing on our bin
 I can hear a whisper, I can hear a _____
 I can hear supporters, _____ for their team.

I can touch my _____, soft and smooth and cool
 I can touch some bubbles, splashing in the _____
 I can touch a high shelf, I can touch my _____
 I can touch the petals of a _____ rose.

I can taste an ice cream, creamy and so _____
 I can taste some strong cheese (just like _____ feet!)
 I can taste a sour lime, also bitter _____
 I can taste the salt air, when I'm near the _____.

Senses are our helpers they let the world in _____ with our tongues and _____ with our skin _____ with our noses, _____ with our eyes _____ with our ears - each day has a surprise!

Gillian Craig

Poems

ART
 CHEERING PEOPLE
 COOKING
 TOES TOUCHING SCREAM
 RAINDROPS FAR
 TEA
 HEARING
 POOL
 CAT
 BAD
 SMELLING
 SMELLY
 STAR TASTING PERFECT
 SWEET
 SEA
 WIND
 PILLOW RAINBOW
 SEEING