

TEST – countable and uncountable nouns

Choose the correct container and write it down:

a slice/a glass of milk

a piece/a jar of cake

a tube/a bowl of rice

a loaf/ a dozen of eggs

a can/a box of cola

Write down much or many:

How _____ eggs do we have?

How _____ water do you need?

How _____ tea do you drink?

How _____ apples have you eaten?

How _____ bananas are there?

How _____ yogurt is it?

How _____ chocolate do you want?

How _____ cucumbers are in the salad?

How _____ sugar do you put in your coffee?

How _____ slices of pizza have you eaten?

Write down a few/a little:

There is _____ time.

There are _____ people.

She bought _____ packets of crisps.

I met _____ dogs.

There are _____ houses in the street.

There is _____ happiness in me.

We need _____ luck.

They met _____ friends.

My friend has _____ children.

His sister needs _____ water.

Choose the correct option:

- a) I bought a few eggs.
- b) I bought a little eggs.
- c) I bought any eggs.

- a) They found some dog.
- b) They found any dog.
- c) They found a little of dog.

- a) She has any children.
- b) She has a little children.
- c) She has a few children.

- a) My friend ate a little slices of pizza.
- b) My friend ate a few slices of pizza.
- c) My friend ate any slices of pizza.

- a) They have a lot of time.
- b) They have a some time.
- c) They have a few time.

- a) How many dogs do you have?
- b) How much dogs do you have?
- c) How a lot of dogs do you have?

- a) There are much animals.
- b) There are a lot of animals.
- c) There are a little animals.

- a) The girl cooked some food.
- b) The girl cooked any food.
- c) The girl cooked a few food.