Task 5. Read the story and answer the questions.

It was night time and Marc was all alone in the castle. There was a full moon in the sky and everything was quiet outside. Suddenly he heard a strange noise. It came from upstairs. Marc got up and walked slowly up the stairs. He went into the large bedroom and stood next to the bed. Suddenly there was a knock at the window. Marc was very scared and turned on the light. He stared at the closed window but couldn't see anything -only his reflection in the dark glass. Again he heard a knock at the window. He turned off the light. Now he could see outside through the window. There was a large tree next to the window. The leaves were moving in the wind and were touching the window. Finally, Marc understood- the noise was simply the tree touching the window.
