

Phrase Match

1. worrying about the end
 2. NASA has been monitoring
 3. they put it on
 4. They predicted it could hit
 5. for the next
 6. predict the asteroid's orbit
 7. incredibly precise
 8. a safe distance of
 9. a certain sense
 10. removed from the risk
- a. our planet in 2029
 - b. 100 years
 - c. list
 - d. information
 - e. their list
 - f. 10.6 million miles away
 - g. of the world
 - h. of satisfaction
 - i. an asteroid
 - j. around the sun

Discussion – Student B

- a) What do you know about asteroids?
- b) Why might an asteroid be dangerous?
- c) What might bring about the end of the world?
- d) What was the last good news you saw or read about?
- e) How interested are you in space?
- f) What would it be like to work for NASA?
- g) What are your predictions for 2029?
- h) How safe is our planet?

Spelling

1. Scientists from NASA have ncrodfime that
2. NASA has been mnitionrogi an asteroid
3. They seddivrceo the 335-metre space rock
4. the most suaohzdra asteroids
5. The scientists iolgnarily said
6. their latest ritcpioned
7. the asteroid's oirtb around the sun
8. incredibly sipceer information
9. to an cucyacra of about 150 meters
10. a safe ictsndae
11. a certain sense of tssnfliacaato
12. its close apohpacr to Earth in 2029

Speaking – Dangers

Rank these with your partner. Put the biggest dangers to people at the top at the top. Change partners often and share your rankings.

- Overpopulation
- Asteroid strikes
- Robots and AI
- Global warming
- Hunger
- Nuclear war
- Aliens
- Pandemics