Easter is a very important festival in Great Britain.
Easter Day is always on Sunday and it is in spring. The wish for this day is 'Happy Easter'.

The symbol of Easter is an Easter bunny- a happy rabbit with a basket of chocolate eggs.
He brings these eggs to children on Easter Sunday.

On Easter Sunday morning, children look for the eggs. It's a very exciting Easter Egg hunt.

For this reason, chocolate bunnies and easter eggs are very popular in Great Britain.
Children have a basket to collect their eggs during the Easter Egg hunt.

English children like colouring and decorating eggs for Easter.
Eggs are very important because they mean spring and new life.

Good Friday is the Friday before Easter Sunday. On this day, people eat hot cross buns. They are yummy. These are small loaves of sweet bread with fruit and spices and they have a cross on top. They are best when you eat them hot.
