3 Make the sentences negative.

1 He was working.
   He wasn't working.

2 She was listening.
   ....

3 We were enjoying our dinner.
   ....

4 It was raining.
   ....

5 You were listening to me.
   ....

6 They were speaking good English.
   ....

7 They were playing well.
   ....

8 I was looking out of the window.
   ....

4 Use the sentences from 3 to complete each sentence.

1 He wasn't working .... — he was playing computer games!
2 .... — it was a beautiful day!
3 .... — they were losing 4—0 after 20 minutes!
4 .... — I was listening to the teacher!
5 .... — I couldn't understand anything they said!
6 .... — she was thinking about her boyfriend!
7 .... — you were asleep!
8 .... — the food was cold!

5 Complete the dialogue. Put the verbs in brackets into the past continuous.

Granddad Do you remember the day we met? Back in 1960?

Grandma Yes, I do. I remember it very well.

Granddad We met in a café.

Grandma No, we met in the park.

Granddad That's right! The park! The sun 1.............................. (shine).

Grandma No, the sun 2.............................. .... (not shine). It 3.............................. (rain).

Granddad Ah yes! The rain! And you 4.............................. (ride) your bike.

Grandma No, I 5.............................. (not ride) my bike. I 6.............................. (walk).

Granddad Of course – you 7.............................. (walk). And you 8.............................. (wear) a blue jacket.

Grandma No, I wasn't. I 9.............................. .... (wear) a brown raincoat.

Granddad Yes, I remember everything. Just like it was yesterday.

Grandma Hmm. And what 10.............................. you .... (do)?

Granddad Me? I 11.............................. (play) football with my friend Stevie Jones.

Grandma That's right. Stevie Jones. He was so good-looking.

Granddad He was. But you married me. Remember?

Grandma Yes, I remember! I 12.............................. .... (not wear) my glasses that day. Oh well. Everyone can make a mistake!