

Box# _____ Name _____ Date _____ Day _____

PRONOUNS PRETEST

A. DEMONSTRATIVE OR INTERROGATIVE?

Choose whether each pronoun is demonstrative or Interrogative.

- _____ 1. Who has been to the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C.?
- _____ 2. This is my favorite picture in the museum.
- _____ 3. That is a beautiful antique.
- _____ 4. Which of these sweaters belongs to you?
- _____ 5. Are those your books on the floor, Melissa?

B. IDENTIFYING PERSONAL PRONOUNS

(1) Select the personal pronoun in each of the following sentences. (2) Above each pronoun, write S for subjective case, O for objective case, or P for possessive case.

1. She likes to have the language homework completed by 3:00 every day.
2. Hand me that book please, Randy.
3. We have to make sure that the arithmetic problems are accurate.
4. The pencil that Samuel dropped was mine,
5. Did you get some dessert?
6. Ours will be the best skit.

C. USING PRONOUNS CORRECTLY: Write the correct pronoun in the blank.

- _____ 1. Chris and (I, me) were late for football practice.
- _____ 2. Mrs. Bowen gave (we, us) boys a puppy.
- _____ 3. This is (he, him) speaking.
- _____ 4. Before breakfast, (we, us) girls must make our beds.
- _____ 5. Was your report about (he, him) and Paul Revere?
- _____ 6. I brought candy for Ben and (I, me).

D. IDENTIFYING GRAMMAR ERRORS: Write correct in the blank if the sentence has no errors. If the sentence has a wrong pronoun verb form, write the correction in the blank. Do not add or remove helping verbs.

- _____ 1. Travis's father has ran around the track four times.
- _____ 2. Have you eaten your lunch yet?
- _____ 3. Him and Jacob ride the same bus to school.
- _____ 4. When the bell rung, we started class
- _____ 5. He has drunk all of his milk.

E. SUBJECT AND VERB AGREEMENT: (1) Underline the subject one time. Put S in the blank if the subject is singular. (2) Put P in the blank if it is plural. (3) Choose the correct verb for each one.

- _____ 1. She _____ like spinach very much.
- _____ 2. Bill and he _____ early for Sunday school.
- _____ 3. I _____ my history test on Friday.
- _____ 4. In the early morning, the dew _____ like drops of silver.
- _____ 5. Edgar Allan Poe _____ a famous artist.