

SPRING TIME

- Read the sentences and choose the answers.

- 1 If you play truant, you go to all the classes at school / don't go to school.
- 2 When you dress up, you wear a costume / a school uniform.
- 3 To drown someone is to keep the person under water / in the cold for too long so the person dies.
- 4 Ugly is the opposite of funny / beautiful.

- Read the riddle and answer the question.

Easter Riddle

COPYRIGHT
© Copy & Paste!

First we boil them, then we colour them or paint them. On Holy Saturday we put them in the Easter basket and take them to church. We eat them at breakfast on Easter Sunday. What are they?

- Read the text and complete it with the given words.

wet Monday boy

In the photo some people are splashing a lot of water over a . He's all . I think someone took this photo on Easter because on that day young people traditionally have water fights. But this is only good fun in warm weather. What is this Easter tradition called where you live? Do you like it?

- Listen to the recording about British Easter traditions . Are the sentences true or false?

- 1 In the past British people didn't paint eggs for Easter.
- 2 British people prefer chocolate Easter eggs.
- 3 Children in the UK go on an egg hunt on Easter Monday.
- 4 The most important Easter meal in the UK is Easter breakfast.
- 5 People often eat lamb and vegetables for Easter lunch.

- Let's watch a film about celebrating Easter.