

SIMPLE PAST VS. PAST CONTINUOUS

Choose the right verb to complete the sentences:

It was Sunday evening. I 1 [watched / was watching] a programme on TV when I 2 [realized / was realising] how hungry I was. "No food since lunch and I had a race in the morning. Biscuits!" , I 3 [thought / was thinking]. My mother gave me a jar of home-made biscuits yesterday.

I 4 [went / was going] into the kitchen, 5 [opened / was opening] the fridge and 6 [found / was finding] some milk on the floor. Then I 7 [looked / was looking] for the kitchen chair but it 8 [wasn't / wasn't being] there and there were no biscuits in the biscuit jar. I was sure the jar was there. It was very strange!

A few minutes later, I 9 [drank / was drinking] some coffee when I 10 [heard / was hearing] a loud noise coming from the dining room. I 11 [went / was going] there quickly and I couldn't believe my eyes. My dog 12 [ate / was eating] the biscuits excitedly on the kitchen chair!