

COMPLETE THE TEXT. Choose the correct preposition.

Isaac Newton

Sir Isaac Newton was born _____ 1643. When he was 18, he went _____ Cambridge University to take a degree _____ Law. However, he soon became interested _____ other subjects like Mathematics and Physics. He graduated _____ 1665, but he stayed _____ university because his research. _____ that he moved _____ London. Newton died _____ 1727.

Mark Twain

American writer

Mark Twain was born _____ November 30, 1835, Florida, Missouri, U.S. and died _____ April 21, 1910, Redding, Connecticut). He was American humorist, journalist, lecturer, and novelist who acquired international fame _____ his travel narratives, especially The Innocents Abroad (1869) and _____ his adventure stories _____ boyhood, especially The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (1876) and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn (1885). He became a popular public figure and one of America's best and most beloved writers.

THE END