

Memories of Excavation!

The _____ (Noun) tells the _____ (Noun) of the Hope family _____ (Noun), my former _____ (Noun). It also _____ (Verb) the story of the _____ (Job) that _____ (Past Verb) the story of Homestead, Judy, her _____ (Noun), me, and Judy's other _____ (Noun). Along with _____ (Noun) of the family, there are photos of the _____ (Noun), _____ (Noun), and _____ (Animal). There is even a _____ (Noun) _____ (Verb -ing) on a _____ (Noun) of the Archaeologists _____ (Verb -ing) and _____ (Verb -ing) on the site. In the video, there is a big _____ (Number) - _____ (Adjective) _____ (Noun) with a screen and an Archaeologist _____ (Verb -ing) it _____ (Adverb) while a curtain of _____ (Noun) rains from the base of the _____ (Noun). I remember this. It's where I was _____ (Past Verb)! I _____ (Verb) the Archaeologist's name was _____ (Name), and she had _____ (Adverb) _____ (Past verb) me from the screen. I am happy to _____ (Verb) her, and I _____ (Verb) if she'll come to _____ (Verb) me in the exhibit.

Click here to hear the original story