The Book Thief

The Book Thief is a World War II drama film based on the novel "The Book Thief" by Markus Zusak. The film is about a young girl living with her adoptive German family during the Nazi era.

In one of the opening scenes, Liesel is travelling with her mother and younger brother on a train. On the way, her brother dies and is buried next to the tracks. Liesel is then brought to her new home in Munich, where she meets her foster parents Rosa and Hans. Rudy, a boy who lives next door, accompanies her on her first day of school. When the teacher asks Liesel to write her name on the chalkboard, she is only able to write three Xs, revealing to her classmates that she is unable to write. She is taunted by her schoolmates. When Hans, her foster father, becomes aware that Liesel cannot read, he begins to teach her. Liesel becomes captivated with reading anything she can.

While at a Nazi book burning ceremony, Liesel and Rudy are harassed into throwing books onto the bonfire by Franz, but Liesel is upset to see the books being burned. When the bonfire ends and everyone leaves, Liesel is still there and she grabs a book that has not been burned. She is seen by Ilsa, the mayor's wife. Ilsa tells Liesel she can come by anytime and read as much as she'd like.
