

A DAY IN A LIFE OF A LITTER OF LITTLE LADY KIMMENS

There is a litter of six kittens with their mother. They are all girls and this is how their day looks like. Use THE PRESENT SIMPLE TENSE.

1. Every two hours, Chloe _____
(cuddle) together with her sisters in a basket.
However, she _____ (not sleep) for long. She _____ (need) to run and play.

2. Molly always _____
(find) all sorts of toys
She _____
(not play) with her sisters.

3. Every second, Molly _____
(get) ready for cat school.
Her lessons always _____ (start) early. She _____ (fight) too.

4. Molly usually _____ (stretch) her leg on a curtain.
Chloe _____
(not do) that so often. She _____ (prefer) looking at people.

5. Little kittens _____
(need) food every two to three hours. They still _____ (drink) their mother's milk.

6. Molly often _____ (kiss) her Mum.

That _____ (happen) every time, they _____ (meet).
They _____
(not fight).

7. Curious Chloe often _____
(observe) the outside world.
However, her little sisters _____ (not
do) that. They just _____ (run).

8. Lucy and two of her sisters _____
(like) to practise agility.
They _____
(not fall) very often.
They _____ (have) a lot of fun.

9. Little kittens _____
(enjoy) playing hide-and-seek under the stairs.

Sophie _____ (not want) to be found, but her sisters often _____ (find) her.

10. These three little kitten ladies often _____ (have) a chat on the stairs. They _____ (not want) to tell us what they are talking about.