Coursebook. Unit 2 page 23

- Read exercise 1 and pay attention to the two examples given. You don't need to write any answers.
- Do exercise 2.
- Read exercise 3. Pay attention to the question asked. You don't need to write any answers but you will need the information later.

Language focus 2: Nouns in formal English

- 1  Look at the following pairs of sentences. In each case the second sentence is an alternative way of expressing the first sentence, which appeared in the reading text above. What differences do you notice between each pair of sentences? Comment on the use of nouns and verbs.
- 1 a Smithy makes reference to the anti-immunization trend.
b Smithy mentions indirectly the fact that they were generally against immunizing people.
- 2 a Such journeys into the unknown often require a leap of faith.
b When you set off like this and put yourself into new situations, you often have to believe that things will get better, even though you can't be sure of this.
- 2 Nouns help to convey information clearly and concisely, and are far more frequent in formal written English than in conversation. For questions 1–4, use the information in a, which is more conversational, to complete the gaps in b, which is more formal.
- Example:
a I thought the painting was very simple and different to anything else I'd seen before. I was very impressed.
b I was most impressed by the simplicity and originality of the painting.
- 1 a He applied for the job and he was clearly a bit disappointed when he heard they'd turned him down.
b He was unable to hide his _____ at their rejection of his _____.
- 2 a The employees said they thought it would be a good idea if the company reduced the working day by just a little, but management said they didn't approve of the idea at all.
b Management voiced their strong _____ of the employees' _____ for a slight _____ in the working day.
- 3 a I have to tell you that I'm not satisfied with the service you offer. I often have to wait a long time for things to get here, even though you say that you send them sooner than 24 hours after you receive an order.
b I must express my _____ with the standard of your service. Delivery of goods is often subject to _____, despite your _____ that orders are dispatched within 24 hours.
- 4 a People fail to understand how important it is to recycle waste, and I think it's because they don't know anything about the environment and they don't get taught enough about it at school.
b People's _____ to understand the _____ of recycling waste is the _____ of a lack of environmental _____ and insufficient _____ on the subject.
- 3 In 1–4 in exercise 2, there are more verbs in a than in b, and more nouns in b than in a. What other differences do you notice between the language used in informal and formal registers?

What, no jet packs?

The usual complaint (0) WHEN looking back at old predictions about the future is that a lot of the things promised in previous decades are (1) near coming true. Jet packs, for example, (2) have been commonly available by now. One can't help feeling disappointed. But reading a piece from 1988, in (3) the Los Angeles Times Magazine tries to predict life for a 2013 household, has the opposite effect. The article, written by Nicole Yorkin, who later (4) on to become a screenwriter for several science-fiction series, traces a day in the life of a fictitious family. It begins in the morning when their coffee maker turns itself on and ends (5) one of the family reading in bed on a laser disc. Meanwhile, data is stored on credit-card-sized computers that Yorkin uncannily refers to (6) 'smart cards' and films are watched on (7) are described as 'ultra-thin, high-resolution video screens'. Some things aren't quite so accurate, (8) Yorkin suggests, for example, that her futuristic family will be served by home robots.

Book review: Walls have Ears by Mark Mitchell

Avid (0) READERS of Mark Mitchell's critically acclaimed historical novels will not be disappointed by his latest offering, Walls have Ears, a simple, but (1) written tale of childhood innocence in a world of adult corruption. Mitchell, a former history teacher, shot to fame three years ago thanks to the television (2) of his fourth novel, Baroque of Ages, which followed the fortunes of two teenage siblings in seventeenth-century Britain. Despite the author's (3) with the TV production, (4) Marian Blackshaw and Edek Sobera, it was a huge success and (5) of his books for children rocketed overnight as a result. Walls have Ears is a (6) on the central theme of Baroque of Ages, though this time set against the background of Hadrian's Wall during its construction in the second century. The chance (7) by two young friends of a plot to assassinate the Roman Emperor responsible for the defensive wall turns their world upside down. The children are sworn to secrecy, but their conscience (8) to get the better of them. THREAT
