

EXERCISES

1 Choose the correct verb.

To learn a language well ...

- 1 You should / shouldn't let it become boring. Enjoy yourself!
- 2 You should / shouldn't be afraid to make mistakes.
- 3 You should / shouldn't watch films and listen to songs in the language.
- 4 You should / shouldn't read a lot.
- 5 You should / shouldn't take every opportunity to speak to people.
- 6 You should / shouldn't wait until you're ready to speak. Speak from the beginning!
- 7 You should / shouldn't focus on only one skill – you need to practise listening as well as speaking, writing and reading.
- 8 You should / shouldn't do a little bit with the language every day, e.g. speak to people, read a book, do some grammar, listen to some songs.

2 Match the two parts to make questions.
