

ASIGNATURA

History

Unidad

2: The Colonial Period in Chile

Objetivo

To identify main characteristics of the Spanish Crown institutions (...).

Read the text and fill in the blanks with the correct information (at the end of the page.)

It was not enough for Spain to discover _____ and conquer it. The next step was to colonize it, that is to say, to make the new lands as similar as possible to _____, being the most important feature, the _____.

As you can imagine, the work of _____ is a process that takes centuries. It needs a complex political, economic, and military organisation, it also includes a strong _____ domain, which means a transfer of customs from the _____.

The American natives had different languages and when they were colonized, were exposed to a cultural _____, for example in terms of religion, language, miscegenation and social hierarchy based on the _____.

Spain	unification	colonization
religion	cultural	motherland
unification	America	races