

Welcome B Are you in a band?

The verb be: affirmative

1 Complete the sentences with the affirmative form of be.

- 1 I <sup>1</sup> 'm fifteen.
- 2 We are into hip hop music.
- 3 Holly is from the UK.
- 4 They are South African.
- 5 You are good at sport.
- 6 It is a great band.
- 7 Scott is my friend.
- 8 David and Liam are into football.

2 Complete the text with the affirmative form of be.

Hi. My name is Ethan. I <sup>1</sup> 'm fifteen and I <sup>2</sup> am American. My home

<sup>3</sup> is in New York. It
<sup>4</sup> is a great city!

In this photo, I <sup>5</sup> am with Olivia and Ellie. They <sup>6</sup> are my friends.

Olivia <sup>7</sup> is at the same school as me, but Ellie <sup>8</sup> isn't at a different school.

We <sup>9</sup> are in a rock band. We <sup>10</sup> are really
into rock!

The verb be: negative

3 Choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

- 1 I isn't / am not from Europe.
- 2 Caitlin and Jack isn't / aren't at the same school.
- 3 We aren't / not into sport.
- 4 Tom isn't / am not fourteen.
- 5 It aren't / isn't a great city.
- 6 You are not / is not in a band.