Discover yourself on a Hutsul Trail

Vyzhnytsia village in Chernivtsi region invites all runners to test in the race of a lifetime. In 2020, the marathon offers three routes: Sokolyne Oko (52.6 km), Vyzhenka (23 km) and Hamovanka (up to 9.6 km).

The races will take place on roads and paths which will be marked, so participants shouldn't worry about lost. The task of the participants is to complete the whole route during the set time limit. Those who are in each race get prizes, but everyone who doesn't give up and finishes, gets a medal.

21 kilometers in 7 hours sounds like a nice, pleasant walk. The first part of the track is like this, but then it becomes After 3-4 kilometers you won't be sure if you want to continue, but don't worry the last part of the trip is of all. We promise, the moment you finish will be moment of your life (until your next marathon).

There are also some rules. For example, it's forbidden use any vehicles or ask someone for help or food. The participants should a bottle of water and some food supplies with them. You will also need some equipment which includes a working mobile phone, a torch and a first aid kit. Organisers also recommend having compass, tracking sticks, and of course, money (just in case).
