

DOC 1 HARLEM SUCCESS STORIES.

Meet Chef Samuelsson

Your mission: Listen and complete the missing words.

Click here

It may seem like award-winning chef _____ Samuelsson _____ to cook but his life began in the turbulence and tragedy of _____, far from the kitchens of Europe in _____ where he _____ a star. At 24, Samuelsson was named Executive Chef of the highly regarded New York City restaurant Aquavit. _____ later, the _____ of September 11th made him _____ his life and ask himself what he was doing to _____ the city where he lived and _____. Marcus dreamed of a restaurant in Harlem called Red Rooster, a place that _____ the food, the culture, and the history of its _____.

Over those seven years, Samuelsson let the neighborhood tell him what his restaurant would _____. He absorbed Harlem style, its _____, and its _____. The biggest hits on Red Rooster's menu include a _____ stew called "Harlem chowder" and a whole deep-fried _____ known as "Yardbird". A _____ star in the kitchen of his 20-sum _____ and a familiar celebrity face on popular TV cooking shows like "Top Chef" and "Chopped".

President _____ asked him to be the chef at his administration's first
_____.

Have a nice day 😊

Miss Conrard

