

One thousand dollar by O. Henry

I. True/False. Write T for a true statement. Write F for a false statement.

1. Miss Hayden was small and slender and clothed in black. _____
2. When Gillian visited Miss Hayden, he come from Old Tolman`s. _____
3. Did Gillian made out his account of his expenditure of the thousand dollars in these words: "Paid by the white sheep, Robert Gillian, $ 1,000 on account of the eternal love, owed by Heaven to the worst and dearest woman on earth." _____
4. Gillian have fulfilled the conditions of handling the $ 1,000) bequest in the will. _____
5. The late Mr. Gillian in reprehensible dissipation among disreputable associates the $50,000 is to be paid to Miriam Hayden. _____

II. Answer the followings questions in a complete sentence:

1. Respond: What would you have done with the thousand dollars if you had been in Bobby Gillian's place?
2. Recall: According to his uncle's will, what must Bobby Gillian do after spending the thousand dollars?
3. Infer: What are Gillian's feelings about inheriting this amount?
4. Infer: Why does Gillian decide to give Miss Hayden the money but not tell the lawyers?
5. Draw Conclusions: What do these decisions indicate about his character?
6. Compare and Contrast: Compare what these decisions indicate about his character with your first impressions of him.