

1. Listen to the text and tick (✓) the correct column in the table.

This newspaper/magazine...	The Guardian	The Guardian Weekly	Melody Maker
is published in London and Manchester.
was united with New Musical Express in 2000.
had another name until 1959.
provides a compact digest of four newspapers.

2. Complete the text with the words from the box.

weekly    reports    newspaper    column    published    articles

A _____ is a printed publication containing information, news and advertisements. The newspaper _____ are usually devoted to social issues, news of business, political events, criminal _____, art and sports. In a newspaper there's usually an editor's _____ that expresses the personal opinions of writers. Newspapers are most often _____ on a daily or _____ basis, and they usually focus on one particular geographic area where most of their readers live.

3. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct form. ( The Present Tenses with Future meaning. The Future Simple)

- 1) This TV show usually _____ (finish) by midnight.
- 2) This art exhibition _____ (open) at 10 a.m.
- 3) The concert of this band (begin) at 8 p.m.
- 4) — What _____ (do) tomorrow afternoon? — I _____ (visit) my grandma — she needs my help.
- 5) For my birthday, which is this Friday, my mum _____ (cook) a chocolate cake.
- 6) The sun _____ (rise) a minute earlier tomorrow.