

Pride and Prejudice

At the Meryton Ball

A. Fill in the blanks with the right word:

beheld creature handsome slighted tempt tolerable

Come, Darcy. I must have you dance. I hate to see you standing about by yourself in that stupid manner. You had much better dance.

I certainly shall not. You know how I detest it unless I am particularly acquainted with my partner.

Upon my honour, I never met with so many pleasant girls in my life as I have this evening!

YOU are dancing with the only handsome girl in the room.

Oh! She is the most beautiful _____ I have ever _____!

But there is one of her sisters sitting down just behind you, who is very pretty and dare me say very agreeable.

Which do you mean?

(He turned around and looked for a moment at Elizabeth and till catching her eye, he withdrew his own)

Oh! She is _____, but not handsome enough to _____ me. I have no interest in young ladies who are _____ by other men.

You had better return to your partner and enjoy her smiles for you are wasting your time with me.
