

I. Rewrite the sentences – use MUST or MUSTN'T.

1. Come here! You must come here.
2. Don't smoke!
3. Wait for us!
4. Listen to me!
5. Don't be so rude!
6. Don't eat in class!

II. Click the correct form.

1. We have / have to go to school tomorrow.
2. Helen and Tom don't have to / must go shopping.
3. Sam walked quick / quickly.
4. She doesn't has / have to get up early.
5. They speak English good / well.
6. Susan came home late / lately.

III. Choose the right answer, A or B.

1. You be late to school again.
A) must B) mustn't
2. People eat a lot of sweets.
A) must B) shouldn't
3. Students turn off their mobile phones during lessons.

A) must B) mustn't

4. You talk to strangers.

A) should B) shouldn't

5. Students chew gum during a lesson.

A) should B) mustn't

6. People eat fruit and vegetables.

A) should B) mustn't

IV. Read the list below. Write what you SHOULD and SHOULDN'T do.

- ✓ drink a lot of water
- ✗ copy your friend's homework
- ✗ eat a lot of sugar
- ✓ do some exercise
- ✗ play computer games all the time
- ✓ help other people

1. You ...

2. ...

3. ...

4. ...

5. ...

6. ...

V. Each sentence contains ONE additional word. Write the sentence correctly.

1. You must ~~to~~ be quiet.

You must be quiet. TO is incorrect

2. She sang loud and played the guitar happily.
3. You shouldn't not be late for school.
4. I don't must tidy my room.
5. He does has to visit the museum.
6. They don't mustn't eat in the library.