

RELATIVE SENTENCES

A) COMPLETE EACH SENTENCE WITH A WORD BELOW. WRITE THE RELATIVE WORDS IN BRACKETS ( ) IF THEY CAN BE OMITTED :

who (x3) ■ whose ■ when ■ where ■ which (x2)

1. Jim can't remember the room  he left his glasses.
2. He showed us the car  he wants to buy.
3. That's the man  stole my bag.
4. I still remember the moment  I first saw her.
5. We have never met the neighbours  flat is above ours.
6. Jenny,  is going out with Andy, has just had an accident.
7. The chair  you're repairing is very old but precious.
8. I don't know the girl  they were talking about.

B) DECIDE WHETHER THESE SENTENCES ARE RIGHT (R) OR WRONG (W).

1. The boy which sits next to me in class is very clever.
2. Our cat, that we all loved very much, died last week.
3. The man whose car was stolen was very upset.
4. The school which I had studied as a child was destroyed in a fire.
5. At the weekend, that my family is at home, we have breakfast together.
6. The student the teacher has called had broken one of the school windows.
7. My brother, has a new sports car, is going to be a father.
8. Carol and Tom, who got married last weekend, are on their honeymoon journey now.

C) COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH SUITABLE RELATIVE PRONOUNS OR ADVERBS.

March 17th is an Irish holiday <sup>1.</sup>  honours the patron saint of Ireland, St Patrick, <sup>2.</sup>  brought Christianity to the Irish people. According to tradition, St Patrick, <sup>3.</sup>  father was a wealthy man, was actually born in England. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by pirates and sold as a slave. Some years later, he escaped to France, <sup>4.</sup>  he lived for many years and became a priest. At the age of 60, <sup>5.</sup>  he returned to Ireland, he built his first church. On March 17th, the day <sup>6.</sup>  St Patrick died, people wear green clothes decorated with the shamrock, <sup>7.</sup>  is the national symbol of Ireland.

D) CHANGE THE THAT PRONOUN FOR AN APPROPRIATE PRONOUN, WRITING THEM IN BETWEEN BRACKETS WHEN YOU CAN OMIT THEM.

1. The ball that Mum got me isn't as good as yours.
2. Yesterday I saw a man that was running away from the police.
3. She bought a dress that was designed by a French tailor.
4. The clerk that attended me gave me the wrong tickets.