

Components of social studies

Study of places and the environment how people manage resources by producing and exchanging goods and services.

people who make, enforce, and settle disagreements about the law beliefs, customs, laws, art, poetry, traditions and ways of living that people share.

the written and other recorded events of people